Vichy, September 28, 1940

Japanese demands of September 20.

Scarcely had the agreement of September 20 been concluded when General Hishikawa presented new demands, which were:

1. Entry via Saigon, at the same time as the landing at Haiphong, of a division 20,000 men strong stationed at Langkham;
2. Establishment of the Japanese general headquarters with all its services and a hospital at Hanoi.

These requests, supported by an ultimatum from Hanoi, were rejected.
